“Assessing Client’s Mental, Violent and Suicidal Risks Through the Satir Model” (4PS-06)

Aim & Objectives:

1. To provide participants with understanding of clients’ suicidality and violence;
2. To share skills in exploring and assessing client’s mental, violent and suicidal risks;
3. To illustrate the therapeutic intervention through case studies;
4. To let participants familiar with management of crisis.

Trainer: Miss Eve Wong Bsc, MSW, PCCC (Hons)

Miss Wong was the ex-vice president of the Hong Kong Satir Center. She graduated with honors in the Professional counseling Certificate Course in Satir Systemic Individual and Family Therapy. Her research pursuit included psychosocial assessment of youth at risk and profile of adolescents with suicidal risk. She was the honorary supervisor of training course on “Using the Satir Model in working effectively with suicidal clients” of the Centre for Suicide Research and Prevention, the University of Hong Kong. She also had clinical attachments to various adolescent mental health settings in different countries.

Miss Wong supervises postgraduate social work students from the HKU and CUHK as well as practicing social workers and counselors in the field. She also trains personnel from different hospitals, universities and organizations. She is currently using Satir Model as well as art and play as media to enhance the clinical social work with pediatric and adolescent patients individually, with their families and in groups.
