Content

Grieving is a healing process. We all experience the loss of a significant person in our lives. Death of a grandparent, parent, sibling or friends often affects us strongly. We need some guidelines on how to grieve more effectively. The seminar will cover on how and when to grieve and how to move past ones loss. Some brief topics include:

- What is grieving?
- Are there any steps in grieving?
- Are there appropriate times to grieve?
- What can you do on your own grieving?
- How can you help others to grieve?

Format

- Talk
- Live demonstration (To work with a star who had a death of somebody human that he/she finds difficult to process and accept)
- Debriefing (questions & answers)

Targets

- Interested public
- Helping professionals

Language

English
(with Cantonese consecutive translation)
