Satir Model

Virginia Satir (1916-1988)—world-renowned pioneer, family therapist, educator & author developed a unique model for change.

Demonstration of Family Reconstruction

It is to demonstrate a powerful, multi-generational psycho dynamic process to:

- ☞ Re-visit & re-capture key experiences & learnings in our history
- ☞ Connect with our parents & their personhood
- ☞ Reveal the sources of old learnings
- ☞ Update the past & transform the negative impacts of our experiences
- ☞ Let go what no longer fits; providing freedom for new choices & revised conclusions
- ☞ Connect with our creative energies & move into new directions
- ☞ Have a new view of our generational patterns, family rules, & perceptions
- ☞ Put the present & the future into a new perspective, helping us to see our parents & ourselves as real people
- ☞ Own & let go our unmet childhood expectations, that frees us from being stuck & victimized because of unmet yearnings from the past
- ☞ Process old situations in a new context, helping us to move towards growth, wholeness & congruence.

This therapeutic & educational process enables us to connect with our life force & yearnings & to take charge of our own decisions with self-responsibility & self acceptance.
